France (Note – early semester start dates)	F BORDEAU57	KEDGE Business School	IMPORTANT: For students who need to take a high number of French-taught courses they usually recommend BORDEAUX campus. Through a mix of programmes they usually offer enough courses to suit your student's need. At this point their Marseille campus unfortunately does not offer a list of French-taught courses sufficient for students who would need 60 ECTS. Academic Calendar: The Fall semesters usually starts at the end of August and ends mid-December. The spring semester starts in early January and ends mid-May. Module Selection: For the Fall semester, the course selection takes place in June and July and students receive information about courses mid-May. For the Spring semester, the course selection takes place in November and December, and students receive information about courses around mid-October. Important Application Documents: Students have to provide a copy of their ID, proof of academic level, proof of English skills and if they wish to take French-taught business courses, proof that they have a B2 level in French. For the Fall semester students have until May 15th to complete their application form, and until October 15th for the Spring semester.
